ARMSTRONG – In loving memory of our dear son, Private JOHN ARMSTRONG, 21192, Manchester Pals, killed in action, July 1st, 1916.
He sleeps not in his native land,
But beneath a foreign sky,
Far from a mother that loved him dear,
In a hero’s grave he lies,
Sweet be your rest, my son so dear,
In life I loved you well, in death I do the same.
Eternal rest grant him O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon him.
R.I.P
From his sorrowing MOTHER and FATHER, also BROTHERS, - 16, Stockholm Street, Clayton: JOE and WILLIE, who is serving in France.

ARMSTRONG – In loving memory of our dear brother, Private JOHN ARMSTRONG, killed in action July 1, 1916.
Fondly we loved him, he is dear to us still,
But in grief we must band to God’s holy will:
But the unknown grave is the bitterest blow
None but aching hearts can know.
Eternal rest give him, O Lord, and let perpetual
Light shine upon him. R.I.P.
From his sorrowing sisters, FLORRIE and NELLIE.

I oft’times shed some bitter tears
When I am all alone
When I think of my dear brother’s grave
So very far from home
Some day I hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when
To clasp his hand in a better land,
Never to part again.
His loving Sister JANET - 38,

KELSALL – In loving memory of my dear husband, Private THOMAS KELSALL 7546, Manchester Regiment, killed in action July 1st, 1916, aged 36 years
When alone in my sorrow and bitter tears flow,
There stealeth a dream of the dear days long ago
Unknown to the world he stands by our side,
And whispers dear wife and child death cannot divide.
Only those who have loved and lost,
Know the meaning of the word gone
Ever remembered by his Sorrowing WIFE and DAUGHTER

One year has passed, our hearts are still sore,
As time goes by we miss him more.
We often sit and think of him when we are all together, a shadow for ever. Deeply regrettled by his sorrowful WIFE and CHILDREN, 5, Grove Street, City Road, Hulme.

WOODHEAD – In sacred and loving remembrance of ERIC JAMES WOODHEAD (20th Manchesters), killed in action on the Somme, July 1st, 1916 and of CYRIL SAMUEL WOODHEAD (6th Manchesters), killed in action in Gallipoli, May 30th, 1915, the dearly loved sons of MR. and Mrs. S. Woodhead, Brooklands.

YATES – In loving memory of JIM, 16th Manchester’s, killed on the Somme, July 1st, 1916, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Yates, 1, Darlington-street, Manchester.
Sleep, soldiers, still in honoured rest,
Your truth and valour wearing,
The bravest are the tenderest,
The loving are the daring,
From their Billet, 5, Townley Street, Morecambe.

YATES – In loving memory of my dear husband, Sapper J. W. YATES, who was killed in action July 2nd, 1916 in the Battle of the Somme.
From his sorrowing
WIFE and CHILDREN
